

FLYING HIGH

Congratulations to Nicky Moss (www.nickymoss.com) who although she isn't local anymore (having relocated to Spain permanently – the weather is better you see) was selected this year for the British Paragliding Team. Number Two woman in Britain Nicky's old job was an engineer – she helped build the Dome on our doorstep. As we were going to press she was representing her country for the first time at the European Championships in Greece.

